☐ Option 3. MAACS Roster Attorneys Only: Appointed Appellate Counsel Web Subscription, $250.

Access to all of the resources described in Options 1 and 2 above PLUS additional research support, including an annual subscription to Westlaw, allowing unrestricted access to all state and federal case law and secondary legal sources and more; an annual membership to the National Association for Public Defense, allowing access to hundreds of free trainings, webinars, and additional resources; and CDRC/MAACS Research Support Services, including consultation and support in use of the above services in court-appointed appellate matters.

Statement from Westlaw: MAACS provides Westlaw access to criminal appellate counsel from a roster of attorneys and SADO to represent indigent clients and remain educated in the law and legal developments that are relevant to their appointed criminal appellate practice. The use of Westlaw beyond these purposes is prohibited. All participants must sign a Schedule C to the Thomson Reuters General Terms and Conditions to receive access to Westlaw. SADO will administer and manage passwords issued under this program. MAACS prohibits use of Westlaw for any matter outside of the scope of work for the program. SADO will revoke access to any participant that abuses the terms of their access or who is removed from the program.

If you selected Option 3, please make the following certification: I certify by my signature that I am a MAACS Roster attorney in good standing, that I currently accept court-appointed felony appeals in Michigan through MAACS in partnership with SADO, and these research services are necessary to provide representation to my appointed appellate clients. I certify that I do not represent city, township or village law departments in a prosecution capacity, or serve as a part-time or special prosecutor.
