About the Presentation

Designed for defense attorneys, prosecutors, probation agents, and judges who have some familiarity with the statutory sentencing guidelines but would like to explore scoring decisions of the appellate courts in greater detail. We will also address updates on recent case law and statutory changes to the Michigan Legislative sentencing guidelines and other areas of Michigan sentencing law.

About the Instructor

Jacqueline McCann has been an Assistant Defender at SADO since 2001. Amongst other cases, Jackie has represented indigent individuals on landmark sentencing issues before the Supreme Court in People v Steanhouse, 500 Mich 453 (2017), People v Smith, 482 Mich 292 (2008), and People v Francisco, 474 Mich 82 (2006).
