

Wed April 21 - Fri April 23, 2021
12pm - 4:15pm each day, 12.5 CLE hrs

3-Day Virtual Appellate Writing Workshop

- Bring your own case or use a mock case provided for you
- Space is limited; register early
- Register at www.sado.org/go/AWW21

Program Overview

During this training, I will...

- ✓ Learn and practice new brief writing techniques
- ✓ Draft portions of my brief
- ✓ Work in small group settings to brainstorm my case and edit my writing

After this training, I will be able to...

- ✓ Develop a theory of appeal and statement of injustice
- ✓ Persuade readers to correct that injustice
- ✓ Develop legal issues that are consistent with the theory of the appeal

Reviews

"The seminar was life-altering for me."

"I can't say enough positive things about my experience in this workshop."

"I think my writing will be a lot more persuasive after these presentations."

Agenda

Day 1: Wed April 21

- 12:00p Our Perspective: Voices of Appellate Clients
- 12:30p Storytelling & Theory Development, Brad Hall (MAACS)
- 1:30p Break
- 1:45p Small Groups - Intros and Brainstorming
- 3:15p Storytelling and Your Brief, Brad Hall (MAACS)

Day 2: Thu April 22

- 12:00p Issue Spotting, Marilena David-Martin (SADO)
- 1:00p Small Groups - Theory of Appeal
- 2:00p Break
- 2:15p Small Groups - Theory of Appeal
- 3:15p From Good to Better to Best, Marilena David-Martin (SADO)

Day 3: Fri April 23

- 12:00p Legal Analysis, Kathy Swedlow (MAACS)
- 1:00p Small Groups - Facts and Issues
- 2:00p Break
- 2:15p Small Groups - Facts and Issues
- 4:00p Closeout