COMMISSIONS--LEGAL COUNSEL--INDIGENTS

AN ACT to establish the commission on legal counsel for indigents for the purpose of providing indigent defense services; to amend and reenact section 27-20-49, subsection 2 of section 28-32-01, and subsections 1 and 4 of section 29-07-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the commission; to provide for a report to the legislative council; to provide an appropriation; to provide for transition; and to provide an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Commission on legal counsel for indigents--Membership.

1. The commission on legal counsel for indigents is established for the purpose of developing and monitoring a process for the delivery of state-funded legal counsel services for indigents which are required under the Constitution of North Dakota and the United States Constitution and any applicable statute or court rule. The commission shall provide indigent defense services for those individuals determined by the court to be eligible for and in need of those services.

2. The commission consists of the following members:

a. Two members appointed by the governor, one of whom must be appointed from a county with a population of not more than ten thousand.

b. Two members of the legislative assembly, one from each house, appointed by the chairman of the legislative council.

c. Two members appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court, one of whom must be appointed from a county with a population of not more than ten thousand.

d. One member appointed by the board of governors of the state bar association of North Dakota.

3. Appointing authorities shall make their initial appointments to the commission before August 1, 2005.

4. Initially, as determined by lot, one member will serve for one year, three members will serve for two years, and three members will serve for three years. At the expiration of the initial terms, the appointing authorities designated in subsection 2 shall make appointments for three-year terms. A member may not serve more than two consecutive three-year terms plus any initial term of less than three years.

5. Individuals appointed to the commission should have experience in the defense of criminal cases or other cases in which appointed counsel services are required or should have demonstrated a commitment to quality representation in indigent defense matters. Membership of the commission may not include any individual, or the employee of that individual, who is actively serving as a judge, state's attorney, assistant state's attorney, contract counsel or public defender, or law enforcement officer.

6. A member of the commission is entitled to reimbursement for travel and expenses as provided by law for other state officers. If not otherwise employed by the state of North Dakota, a member is entitled to receive per diem compensation of sixty-two dollars and fifty cents for each day devoted to attending meetings or performing other duties relating to the official business of the commission.

7. One of the two appointees of the chief justice, as determined by the chief justice, shall convene the commission's first meeting no later than August 15, 2005. The members of the commission shall select the chairman of the commission within thirty days after the commission's first meeting and annually thereafter.

SECTION 2. Commission responsibilities.

1. The commission shall:

a. Develop standards governing the delivery of indigent defense services, including:

(1) Standards governing eligibility for indigent defense services;

(2) Standards for maintaining and operating regional public defender offices if established;

(3) Standards prescribing minimum experience, training, and other qualifications for contract counsel and public defenders;

(4) Standards for contract counsel and public defender caseloads;

(5) Standards for the evaluation of contract counsel and public defenders;

(6) Standards for independent, competent, and efficient representation of clients whose cases present conflicts of interest;

(7) Standards for the reimbursement of expenses incurred by contract counsel; and

(8) Other standards considered necessary and appropriate to ensure the delivery of adequate indigent defense services.

b. Establish and implement a process of contracting for legal counsel services for indigents.

c. Establish public defender offices in the regions of the state as the commission considers necessary and appropriate.

d. Establish a method for accurately tracking and monitoring caseloads of contract counsel and public defenders.

e. Approve and submit a biennial budget request to the office of the budget.

2. Upon the request of a county or city, the commission may agree to provide indigent defense services in the county or city for those cases in which the county or city is otherwise required to provide such services. Moneys received by the commission in accordance with an agreement under this subsection must be deposited in the indigent defense administration fund.

3. The commission shall adopt rules for the exercise of its authority under this chapter in a manner generally consistent with the notice and comment provisions of section 28-32-11.

SECTION 3. Commission director--Responsibilities.

1. The commission shall appoint a director who must be chosen on the basis of training, experience, and other qualifications considered appropriate. The director must be an attorney licensed and eligible to practice law in this state at the time of appointment and at all times during service as director. The director may be removed for cause by a majority vote of commission members.

2. The director shall:

- a. Assist the commission in developing standards for the delivery of adequate indigent defense services;
- b. Administer and coordinate delivery of indigent defense services and supervise compliance with commission standards;
- c. Recommend the establishment of public defender offices when considered necessary and appropriate to the delivery of adequate indigent defense services;
- d. Conduct regular training programs for contract counsel and public defenders;
- e. Subject to policies and procedures established by the commission, hire the professional, technical, and support personnel, including attorneys to serve as public defenders, considered reasonably necessary for the efficient delivery of indigent defense services;
- f. Prepare and submit to the commission a proposed biennial budget for the provision of indigent defense services; an annual report containing pertinent data on the operation, needs, and costs of the indigent defense contract system and any established public defender offices; and any other information as the commission may require;
- g. Submit the annual report required under subdivision f to the legislative council; and
- h. Perform other duties as the commission may assign.

SECTION 4. Records, files, and information--Accessibility--Confidentiality. Any file, record, or information regarding representation of a defendant under sections 1 through 3 of this Act which are attorney work-product or otherwise subject to any attorney-client privilege are confidential and may not be disclosed except in accordance with a court order or in response to applicable discovery rules. All other case-related records are exempt from disclosure except as otherwise provided in rules adopted by the commission.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 27-20-49 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

<< ND ST 27-20-49 >>

§ 27-20-49. Costs and expenses for care of child

1. The following expenses are a charge upon the funds of the county upon certification thereof by the court:

- a. The cost of medical and other examinations and treatment of a child ordered by the court.
- b. The cost of care and support of a child committed by the court to the legal custody of a public agency other than an institution for delinquent children, or to a private agency or individual other than a parent.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 29-07-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

<< ND ST 29-07-01.1 >>

1. Lawyers appointed to represent indigent persons must be compensated at a reasonable rate to be determined by the court commission on legal counsel for indigents. Expenses necessary for the adequate defense of an indigent person, when approved by the judge, must be paid by the state if the action is prosecuted in district court and by the city in which the alleged offense took place if the action is prosecuted in municipal court. The city shall also pay the expenses in any appeal taken to district court from a judgment of conviction in municipal court pursuant to section 40-18-19. A defendant requesting representation by appointed counsel, or for whom appointed counsel without a request is considered appropriate by the court, shall submit an application for appointed defense services. For an application for appointed defense services in the district court, a nonrefundable application fee of twenty-five dollars must be paid at the time the application is submitted. The district court may extend the time for payment of the fee or may waive or reduce the fee if the court determines the defendant is financially unable to pay all or part of the fee. If the application fee is not paid before disposition of the case, the fee amount must be added to the amount to be reimbursed under this section. Application fees collected under this subsection must be forwarded for deposit in the indigent defense administration fund established under subsection 4.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 29-07-01.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

<< ND ST 29-07-01.1 >>

4. The indigent defense administration fund is a special fund in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall deposit in the fund all application fees collected under subsection 1. All moneys in the indigent defense administration fund are appropriated on a continuing basis to the judicial branch commission on legal counsel for indigents to be used in the administration of the indigent defense system ~~and the collection of indigent defense costs and expenses required to be reimbursed under this section.~~

SECTION 9. REPORT TO LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL. During the 2005-06 interim, the commission on legal counsel for indigents shall report periodically to the legislative council regarding the implementation of this Act. The commission shall present its first report to the legislative council before December 1, 2005.

SECTION 10. APPROPRIATION. Any moneys not expended by the supreme court for indigent defense services by December 31, 2005, are appropriated to the commission on legal counsel for indigents and must be transferred to the commission on January 1, 2006.

SECTION 11. TRANSITION. All contracts for indigent defense services awarded by the supreme court after June 30, 2005, must expire no later than December 31, 2005.

SECTION 12. EFFECTIVE DATE. Sections 5 and 7 of this Act become effective on January 1, 2006.

Approved April 7, 2005. Filed April 12, 2005.
