Statement of State Appellate Defender Office Upon Adjournment of Terance Calhoun Hearing and the Delay in His Release

Mr. Calhoun is innocent. DNA testing exonerates him and instead points to a suspected serial rapist. Mr. Calhoun should have been freed today. Instead, because a police officer acting alone with no authority could not face the facts, Mr. Calhoun remains wrongfully incarcerated, which is unconscionable.

We have been informed that the information that the officer attempted to present to the judge today is nothing new and has already been thoroughly investigated.

Michigan's State Appellate Defender Office is the oldest and largest public defender office in the state. Enacted by statute in 1979, SADO provides zealous representation to indigent individuals appealing their felony convictions. To learn more, visit sado.org.
