

Nuts and Bolts of...

Part 1: 9a - 12p

Appeals

Part 2: 1 - 3:30p

District to Circuit Court Appeals

Thu 8/25/22 | Zoom | 5.5 CLE available

Presented by: Melissa Krauskopf

Part 1 - learn how to spot issues, write and format an appeal by leave and by right, and develop postconviction motions. Part 2 - learn the procedure and timing of district to circuit court appeals, how they differ from COA appeals, and the differences in various jurisdictions, with a focus on Oakland and Macomb.

Register for Part 1, 2, or both at: www.sado.org/go/appeals

Questions? Contact Marilena David at mdavid@sado.org

About Melissa Krauskopf

Melissa graduated from Cooley Law School in 2004, has been practicing criminal defense since 2005, and has been a MAACS roster attorney doing appeals since 2013. She, along with her law firm partner, founded K and Q Law in 2008. In 2018, Melissa was awarded with the Barbara R. Levine Award for Excellence in Appellate Advocacy and received recognition for restoring appellate rights for individuals who had been left behind due to a breakdown in the system. Melissa is a frequent trainer for the Oakland County Bar Association on topics such as the appellate process, sentencing guidelines, and PSIRs.

Melissa is a cat person!

