

The Youth Defense Project of the State Appellate Defender Office and Michigan Appellate Assigned Counsel System invites you to...

Girls and Delinquencies

Presented by Terri Gilbert, MSW

03/16/2023 @ 12:00 PM via Zoom

The juvenile justice system affects girls in unique ways, and often to their detriment. Please join us as Terri Gilbert leads a discussion on issues specific to girls in the juvenile justice system.

Register at: www.sado.org/go/girlsdelinquent
Questions?

Contact Josh Pease at jpease@sado.org

About Terri Gilbert

Terri Gilbert, MSW, serves as the Juvenile Justice Projects Manager at the Center for Behavioral Health and Justice at Wayne State University School of Social Work, providing juvenile justice consultation and project management to a variety of juvenile justice projects around the state. Her experience spans the service array including child welfare and juvenile justice, adult and child mental health and cognitive impairments, workforce training and law. Ms. Gilbert previously served in two state bureau director positions for the State of Michigan, including Child Welfare Funding and Juvenile Justice.