

State Appellate Defender Office
Criminal Defense Resource Center

Angeles Meneses is an assistant defender at the State Appellate Defender Office, where she has worked since 2016. She is also an adjunct professor at both the University of Michigan Law School and Wayne State University of Law School, teaching the Criminal Appellate Practice Clinic. Angeles is a member of the 2022 Michigan Sentencing Guidelines Editorial Advisory Board, and the Michigan Judicial Institute Sentencing Guidelines Committee. She is also a member of the Michigan State Court Administrative Office Foreign Language Board.

Tuesday, May 16, 2023
Noon-1:30 pm | Up to 1.5 CLE
Via Zoom

Confronting Economic Penalties in the Trial Court

Economic penalties imposed at sentencing can be debilitating, particularly for our indigent clients. Sometimes these financial assessments can be the barrier between our clients and success in the outside world, following their sentence. This training will focus on various ways to challenge economic penalties imposed at sentencing on behalf of our clients, on ability-to-pay and other grounds, and how to be your client's best advocate against financial burden.

Register via the code at right, or at www.sado.org/go/EconPenalties

Contact: Kathy Swedlow | kswedlow@sado.org