

S A D O

State Appellate Defender Office
Criminal Defense Resource Center

Zamir Ben-Dan is an assistant professor at Temple Law School. His research interests and emerging scholarship lie in the intersections of criminal law, race and the law, and American history. Professor Ben-Dan formerly worked as a staff attorney in the Bronx Criminal Trial Practice and Community Justice Units of the Legal Aid Society. Professor Ben-Dan was a founding member of the Black Attorneys of Legal Aid caucus (BALA), and served for nearly five years in BALA's leadership.

Tuesday, August 15, 2023
Noon-1:30 pm | Up to 1.5 CLE
Via Zoom

Warrior Motion Practice

This training aims to encourage defense attorneys to think outside the box and challenge social wrongs through motion practice. This training provides an easy, four-step process by which attorneys can turn creative ideas into powerful legal arguments and force prosecutors to either work for their convictions or offer dispositions favorable to your client.

Register via the code at right, or at www.sado.org/go/WarriorMotions

Contact: Kathy Swedlow | kswedlow@sado.org