

State Appellate Defender Office
Criminal Defense Resource Center

Lori Montgomery is the Section Head of the Conviction Integrity Unit at the Michigan Department of Attorney General. Lori's career has concentrated on post-conviction innocence work and the intersection between science and the law. She is a graduate of Ryerson University (B.A.) and the Thomas M. Cooley Law School (J.D. and LL.M).

Tuesday, October 15
Noon - 1:30 pm | 1.5 CLE
Via Zoom

DNA: The basics and working with experts

In this training, attendees will learn the basics of DNA testing in criminal cases and then how to evaluate cases to determine when and whether they should consult a DNA expert. The training will also include Q&A.

Register via the QR code or at www.sado.org/go/DNA2024

Contact: cdrc@sado.org

