

S A D O

State Appellate Defender Office
Criminal Defense Resource Center

After a long career that included work in criminal defense, worker's comp, employment discrimination, and more, John Sims joined the Calhoun County Public Defender's office as an Assistant Public Defender. He now represents indigent individuals who are charged with felony offenses, specializing in life offense cases. John's life experience has helped him to understand that we must choose our battles, and not everything is worth the fight. But John also knows that when we must go into battle, we need every weapon we can get.

Tuesday, November 19
Noon - 1:30 pm | 1.5 CLE
Via Zoom

State Habeas Corpus: The extraordinary writ

In this training, attendees will learn about with the varied uses of state habeas corpus and how to use it to seek relief for clients who have been deprived of their freedom. Attendees will leave this training knowing when, where, and how to use this versatile tool to obtain results they may not have realized were possible.

Register via the QR code, or at www.sado.org/go/StateHabeas

Contact: cdrc@sado.org