

Youth Defense Updates

February 17, 2026 | 12-1:30 PM | Zoom | Up to 1.5 CLE

This training will provide attendees with updates on the state of juvenile law from both the courts and the Legislature. It will also explore areas ripe for litigation and review underused cases and statutes that may benefit youthful clients.

Joshua Pease is the Youth Appellate Defense Counsel at the Michigan Appellate Assigned Counsel System (MAACS). After nearly a decade in private practice, Josh joined MAACS in 2022; he is a leading litigator on children's right to counsel and children being tried as adults.

Register with the QR code below.

State Appellate Defender Office
Criminal Defense Resource Center

Contact: cdrc@sado.org